About Adelaide Fringe: A World-Renowned Arts Festival

Held annually from February to March, Adelaide Fringe is Australia's largest and most internationally acclaimed open-access arts festival. Every year, over 8,000 artists across diverse genres, including theater, music, dance, circus, and comedy, gather to perform for audiences and cultural industry leaders from around the globe.

"The Sumo Show HIRAKUZA" will be held at The Garden of Unearthly Delights, a massive outdoor festival hub in the center of Adelaide that attracts over 750,000 visitors annually. The 60-minute Sumo spectacular will be performed a total of 33 times throughout the festival.

“The Sumo Show HIRAKUZA”: Bringing the Spirit of Sumo from Japan to the World

HIRAKUZA is an entertainment brand dedicated to “Sharing new ways to enjoy Japanese culture with the world.” The brand launched THE SUMO HALL HIRAKUZA OSAKA in Namba, Osaka, in 2024, followed by the January 2026 opening of THE SUMO LIVE RESTAURANT HIRAKUZA GINZA TOKYO, a venue fusing the power of Sumo with Japanese cuisine and an immersive venue. Having delivered Sumo entertainment to approximately 70,000 people across more than 120 countries and regions, the brand is now moving beyond Japan. Following a performance in India in November 2024, it is advancing its full-scale international expansion as “The Sumo Show HIRAKUZA,” beginning with an appearance at Adelaide Fringe, the global festival that brings together artists and audiences from around the world. This approximately 60-minute stage show captures the overwhelming physicality of Sumo wrestlers and the refined beauty of their movements, presenting the appeal of Japan’s traditional culture, Sumo, to international audiences.
